Prisoners from Aiud began work on the Danube-Black Sea canal in late July at Poarta Alba. The prisoners, none of whom are older than 35 years, are housed in large barracks and are guarded by military detachments. On arrival they were issued shorts and sandals as clothing. Their food is reported to be "very good" and permission has been given them to receive mattresses and unlimited amounts of food and clothing from their families.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
